- b. Anywhere the singular form is used, it includes the plural form and anywhere the plural form is used, it includes the singular form, unless explicitly specified in a provision.

Visions and Principles:

5. The Graduate Students' Association (GSA) electoral process is governed by the following principles:

- a. Fairness:

- i. Where each candidate is treated equally by the Chief Returning Officer, Elections and Referenda Committee, and the interpretation of this and related policies;
- ii. where every candidate should be treated in a manner consistent with both the spirit and the language of this and related policies;
- iii. where conflicts of interest of those involved in the administration of the election are fully declared prior to the commencement of the campaign period

- b. Equality:

- i. where each candidate will have an equal opportunity to access the student body during the campaign period to communicate their campaign platform;
- ii. where no candidate may exploit a current or recently held position to gain unequal access to any part of the student body;
- iii. where each graduate student will have an equal opportunity to become a candidate, subject only to the qualifications necessary to be eligible to hold office;
- iv. where no candidate's financial resources will create a bias for or against their campaign;
- v. where every graduate student shall have the opportunity to question and engage every candidate;
- vi. where any candidate can appeal a decision made by either the Chief Returning Officer or the Elections and Referenda Committee in a manner consistent with natural justice;
- vii. where all members can participate in the electoral process notwithstanding any distance, barrier, or obstacle such as, but not limited to, on co-op leave, studying abroad, or on the University's Satellite Campuses.

- c. Transparency

- i. where every member has the right to know how the election is to be administered prior to the start of the campaign period;
- ii. where the rules and processes of the election, and the roles and responsibilities of each position, should be clearly laid out prior to the commencement of the nominations process;
- iii. where every graduate student has the right to know the infractions of any candidate once all appeal avenues have been exhausted.

- d. Student Interest

Brock University Graduate Students' Association

Document 040B

The Graduate Students' Association Elections and Referenda Policy

- i. Where the interest of the graduate student body shall be held in the highest possible regard
- ii. Where it is understood that no aspect of the elections process or a candidate's activities should unduly interfere with or disrupt the academic pursuits and non-academic pursuits of the student body.
- iii. Where it is understood that every graduate student will be encouraged to participate and become engaged in the election process

General Administration:

6. The Chief Returning Officer must administer the elections process through this policy and respect its visions and principles.
 - a. The Chief Returning Officer will be assisted by the Deputy Returning Officer to whom they may delegate responsibilities.
 - b. The Elections and Referenda Committee is an oversight body to the elections process and will ensure the respect of the vision and principles of this policy by the Election staff.

Composition of the Election and Referendum Committee:

7. The Election and Referendum Committee shall be composed of:
 - a. A Chief Returning Officer
 - b. A Deputy Returning Officer
 - c. Three (3) Committee members, including at least one Board member
8. The composition of the committee shall be approved by Board before the start of the campaign period.
9. No member of the Election and Referendum Committee may run or campaign while being a member of the Committee.

Schedule of Elections:

10. Executive elections shall be held annually in the month of March. The date for this election must be approved by Board. By-elections may be called as required.

Candidate Eligibility:

11. Candidate Eligibility shall be determined by the GSA Bylaw (Document 001) as well as Document 046 – The Graduate Students' Association Executive Eligibility Policy.

Nomination Process:

12. The GSA must advertise the opening and closing of nomination at least five (5) weeks prior to the election date.

The Graduate Students' Association Elections and Referenda Policy

39. The Chief Returning Officer must ensure compliance with the rules and regulations stipulated by this or any other applicable policy. The Elections Committee is empowered to sanction, penalize, and disqualify candidates for contraventions of this policy in accordance with the Visions and Principles contained within this policy.
40. Infractions of this policy shall be classified as;
 - a. "Class A" infractions shall be considered a contravention of the provisions of this policy that are deemed seriously detrimental to either the elections process or the public perception thereof. Class A infractions include any action performed by a candidate or a referendum campaign team, that confers upon them an unfair or irreparable advantage over their competitors.
 - b. "Class B" infractions shall be considered a contravention of the provisions of this policy that are not deemed seriously detrimental to the election process.
41. Infractions will be investigated and enforced following the following procedures:
 - a. The Chief Returning Officer will communicate notice of alleged infraction within twelve (12) hours of commencing the investigation. The notice will include the statute that has been allegedly contravened, a description of the event or action at fault, and a description of the investigation procedures and timelines. The notice will be delivered by electronic mail.
 - b. The investigation will include a meeting of the Election and Referenda Committee with the accused along with other people as required by the Committee to determine whether there has been contravention of this policy or not. After the investigation, the Committee will determine if a contravention of election procedures has taken place and if so what class the infraction was.
 - i. Class A infraction will result in immediate disqualification from the race.
 - ii. Class B infraction will result in sanction equal to the severity of the infraction. The sanction shall have a rational connection to the effect of the infraction committed and shall serve to rectify any favour, position or advantage gained by a candidate. The Chief Returning Officer may choose to impose a monetary sanction that cannot exceed 25% of the candidate's total reimbursement for their campaign expenses. The sanction shall be effective immediately.
 - iii. Three Class B infractions will result in immediate disqualification from the race.
 - c. Candidate can appeal any infraction or sanction/disqualification made by Committee by giving notice in writing to both the GSA Executive Director and the Chief Returning Officer within 24 hours of the Committee's decision being made public.
 - d. If an appeal is not made within the allotted time, the decision of the Committee is final and binding.

42. Infraction Hearing in which a Candidate or representative wishes to participate shall proceed as follows:
 - a. Opening Statements by Chief Returning Officer as to the nature of the meeting
 - b. Report of the Chief Returning Officer
 - c. Rebuttal of Report by the Candidate or campaign manager
 - d. Questions of Committee Members
 - e. Closing Statements
 - f. All non-committee members are excused, and the Committee deliberates and drafts a notice of finding.
43. Disqualification Hearing shall proceed as follows:
 - a. Call to Order by Chair of the Disqualification Panel
 - b. Case for Disqualification presented by the Chief Returning Officer
 - c. Rebuttal of case for Disqualification presented by the Candidate or campaign manager
 - d. Case against Disqualification presented by the Candidate or campaign manager
 - e. Rebuttal of case against Disqualification presented by the Chief Returning Officer
 - f. Closing statements presented by the Chief Returning Officer
 - g. Closing statements presented by the Candidate or campaign manager
 - h. Questions from members of the Disqualification Panel
 - i. Panel Deliberation
 - j. Adjournment
44. Disqualification Hearing shall be held in accordance with the following provisions:
 - a. The purpose of a Disqualification Hearing will be to determine:
 - i. Whether the alleged activities did in fact occur;
 - ii. Whether the activity indeed constitutes a contravention of the policy and, thus, is an infraction;
 - iii. Whether the candidate or campaign manager was responsible for the activity; and
 - iv. Whether the infraction:
 1. Is seriously detrimental to the election process;
 2. Is seriously detrimental to the public perception of the election process; or
 3. Has gained a candidate or campaign manager an unfair and irreparable advantage over their competitors.
 - b. Should the hearing fail to establish at least one of the criteria specified above, the disqualification shall be considered invalid.
 - c. The Disqualification Panel will be chaired by the Chair of the GSA Board (non-voting member) and be composed of (5) voting members:
 - i. One (1) member of the GSA Executive committee,
 - ii. Four (4) non-Executive members of the Board
 - d. Members of the Disqualification Panel cannot have been candidate in any election or part of a campaign team.

Brock University Graduate Students' Association

The Graduate Students' Association Elections and Referenda Policy

- e. If the Chair of the Board was running in the election, another Executive will be designated as Chair of the Disqualification Panel.
- f. The Chief Returning Officer shall prosecute the infraction. The burden of proof shall be on the Chief Returning Officer.
- g. The Chief Returning Officer shall contact the members of the Disqualification Panel within twelve (12) hours of receiving the request from a candidate or campaign manager to schedule the date, time, and location of the hearing, being within two (2) business days after the request for the hearing is made by the candidate or campaign manager.
- h. The Panel shall meet at their own convenience to discuss and review the hearing procedures in addition to relevant legislation.
- i. The Chief Returning Officer shall provide disclosure to the candidate twenty-four (24) hours prior to the commencement of the Disqualification hearing.
- j. The Chair of the Disqualification Panel shall make the decision of the Panel public immediately after a decision has been made.
- k. Should the Panel choose to validate the disqualification of a candidate or campaign manager/referendum, that candidate shall be permanently disqualified and removed from their corresponding ballot. Should the Panel choose to invalidate the disqualification of a candidate, the Panel can decide to assign a Class B infraction to the candidate which could be appealed following the provisions included in this policy.

Appeals Process:

- 45. Should a candidate or campaign manager wish to appeal any administrative, procedural, or interpretative decisions made by the Chief Returning Officer, they may do so in writing to the Elections and Referenda Committee and may make representation to the Committee.
 - a. Class A and Class B infractions must be appealed following the provisions of this policy.
 - b. Decisions of the Disqualification Panel shall only be overturned if there is a demonstrable lack of due process or the hearing was not held in accordance with the provisions of this policy.
 - c. Upon receiving an appeal, the Board shall decide within seventy-two (72) hours of receiving the appeal.

Student Ombudsperson and Conflict Resolution:

- 46. If, during the duration of an election period, a nominee, candidate, or member of a campaign team feels that the Visions and Principles contained within this policy have been contravened, they shall have the right to seek assistance, support, or advice from or issue a complaint to the Office of the Student Ombudsperson of Brock University without fear of reprisal.

The Graduate Students' Association Elections and Referenda Policy

- a. In the event a candidate may wish to seek advice from the Ombudsperson, they may do so according to the policies and procedures of the Office of the Student Ombudsperson of Brock University.
- b. In the event a candidate or campaign manager may wish to submit a formal complaint or grievance, they must do so in writing to the Ombudsperson and include the following:
 - i. Their name, contact information, and position for which they are a candidate
 - ii. Their explanation of the alleged contravention of this policy by the Chief Returning Officer, or Deputy Returning Officer
 - iii. An indication of the Visions and Principles of this policy alleged to have been contravened
 - iv. Upon receipt of a formal complaint or grievance, the Ombudsperson may choose to refer the complaint to the Chair of the GSA Board, if the Chair was not running in the election.
 - v. Should a nominee, candidate, or member of a campaign team contact the Ombudsperson for assistance during the duration of an election, the Chief Returning Officer, or Deputy Returning Officer, shall be compelled to participate in any meeting, discussion, or Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism recommended by the Ombudsperson to affect a settlement of dispute.
 - vi. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to impose upon the Chief Returning Officer an obligation to uphold any decision or recommendation made by the Ombudsperson that would otherwise be made by the Chief Returning Officer.

Severability:

47. The provisions and part-provisions of this policy are hereby declared to be severable such that if any provision or part-provision or application thereof to any person or circumstance is declared invalid for any reason, such a declaration shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions and part-provisions.
